WRIT PETITION UNDER ARTICLE 226 OF THE CONSTITUTION OF INDIA

Present : Shri Chandresh Shrivastava, counsel for the petitioner.
Ms. Sunita Jain, Panel Lawyer for the State on advance copy.

ORAL ORDER

(Passed on 17th November, 2007)

Heard on admission.

Learned counsel for the petitioner argues that though there is an interim order in favour of the petitioner in W.P. No. 2619/2004 (Annexure-P4, page No.41 & 42) but the respondents are not assigning any work to the petitioner and thereby they are showing disrespect to the interim order. He further submits that though it has been mentioned in the interim order that status-quo as existed on 24-09-2004 shall be maintained regarding service conditions of the petitioner, but the authorities of the respondents are pressurizing to vacate the government quarter of the petitioner. On being pointedly asked from learned counsel for the petitioner, as to whether the aforesaid W.P. No. 2619/2004 is pending or not, learned counsel for the petitioner replies that the said writ petition is also pending before the High Court. In view of the pendency of the earlier writ petition, I am not inclined to admit this fresh writ petition for hearing. The petition is dismissed at the motion stage itself. However, the petitioner shall be at liberty to take appropriate steps by filing appropriate application in the pending writ petition and the order passed in this writ petition shall not come in the way of such action taken by the petitioner.
